Nothing Happens Chantal Akermans Hyperrealist Everyday:

Nothing Happens Ivone Margulies, 1996 Through films that alternate between containment order and symmetry on the one hand and obsession explosiveness and a lack of control on the other Chantal Akerman has gained a reputation as one of the most significant filmmakers working today Her 1975 film Jeanne Dielman 23 Quai du Commerce 1080 Bruxelles is widely regarded as the most important feminist film of that decade In Nothing Happens Ivone Margulies presents the first comprehensive study of this influential avant garde Belgian filmmaker Margulies grounds her critical analysis in detailed discussions of Akerman's work from Saute ma ville a 13 minute black and white film made in 1968 through Jeanne Dielman and Je tu il elle to the present Focusing on the real time representation of a woman's everyday experience in Jeanne Dielman Margulies brings the history of social and progressive realism and the filmmaker's work into perspective Pursuing two different but related lines of inquiry she investigates an interest in the everyday that stretches from postwar neorealist cinema to the feminist rewriting of women's history in the seventies She then shows how Akerman's corporeal cinema is informed by both American experiments with performance and duration and the layerings present in works by European modernists Bresson Rohmer and Dreyer This analysis revises the tired opposition between realism and modernism in the cinema defines Akerman's minimal hyperrealist aesthetics in contrast to Godard's anti illusionism and reveals the inadequacies of popular characterizations of Akerman's films as either simply modernist or feminist An essential book for students of Chantal Akerman's work Nothing Happens will also interest international film critics and scholars filmmakers art historians and all readers concerned with feminist film theory Film-Konzepte 47: Chantal Akerman Fabienne

Jahrhunderts Der vorliegende Band hält Rückschau auf das bedeutende Werk der Regisseurin Chantal Akerman:

Chamarette, 2012-09-28 Using hybrid phenomenological approaches to film this book focuses on how moving images are experienced and encountered as well as read and viewed Its close engagements with films and installations by four contemporary French filmmakers explore the limits and possibilities of cinematic subjectivity The Rhythm of Images Domietta Torlasco, 2021-06-08 A rigorous and imaginative inquiry into rhythm's vital importance for film and the moving image. Focusing attention on a concept much neglected in the study of film, The Rhythm of Images opens new possibilities for thinking about expanded perception and idiosyncratic modes of being. Author Domietta Torlasco engages with both philosophy and cinema to elaborate a notion of rhythm in its pre-Socratic sense as a manner of flowing, a fugitive mode that privileges contingency and calls up the forgotten fluidity of forms. In asking what it would mean to take this rhythm as an ontological force in its own right, she creatively draws on thinkers such as Giorgio Agamben, Roland Barthes, Gilles Deleuze, and Luce Irigaray. Rhythm emerges here as a form that eludes measure, a key to redefining the relation between the aesthetic and the political and thus a pivotal means of resistance to power. Working with constellations of films and videos by international artists from Michelangelo Antonioni, Jean-Luc Godard, and David Lynch to Harun Farocki and Victor Burgin among others, Torlasco brings to bear on them her distinctive concept of rhythm with respect to four interrelated domains: life, labor, memory, and medium. With innovative readings of artworks and critical texts alike, The Rhythm of Images fashions a vibrant, provocative theory of rhythm as the excess or potential of perception. Ultimately, the book reconceives the relation between rhythm and the world-making power of images. The result is a vision of cinema as a hybrid medium endowed with the capacity not only to reinvent corporeal boundaries but also to find new ways of living together.

Slow Movies Ira Jaffe, 2014-05-14 In all film, there is the desire to capture the motion of life, to refuse immobility. Agnes Varda has noted, "But to capture the reality of human experience, cinema must fasten on stillness and inaction as much as motion." Slow Movies investigates movies by acclaimed international directors who, in the past three decades, have challenged mainstream cinema's reliance on motion and action. More than other realist art cinema, slow movies by Lisandro Alonso, Nuri Bilge Ceylan, Pedro Costa, Jia Zhangke, Abbas Kiarostami, Cristian Mungiu, Alexander Sokurov, Bela Tarr, Gus Van Sant, and others radically adhere to space-times in which emotion is repressed along with motion. Editing and dialogue yield to stasis and contemplation; action surrenders to emptiness, if not death.

The Place of Poetics within Documentary Filmmaking Keith Marley, 2023-07-21 This collection aims to give insight to the reader as to how poetic approaches to documentary filmmaking have helped to develop the documentary form into a rich and diverse way of representing the real world in film. As such, it is the aesthetics of documentary filmmaking that becomes the primary focus of discussion within this collection. The majority of the chapters are written by documentary filmmakers who give insight into how poetics have influenced their own approach to documentary filmmaking, while other chapters are written by film scholars who analyse the work of others in order to uncover how poetics are manifested in existing documentary films. This book will be of interest to those who produce documentary films as well as those who have an interest in the work of other documentary filmmakers.
