Nocturnes: Popular Music and the Night Geoff Stahl, Giacomo Bottà, 2019-03-27 The night and popular music have long served to energise one another such that they appear inextricably bound together as trope and topos This history of reciprocity has produced a range of resonant and compelling imaginaries conjured up through countless songs and spaces dedicated to musical life after dark Nocturnes Popular Music and the Night is one of the first volumes to examine the relationship between night and popular music Its scope is interdisciplinary and geographically diverse The contributors gathered here explore how the problems promises and paradoxes of the night and music play off of one another to produce spaces of solace and sanctuary as well as underpinning strategies designed to police surveil and control movements and bodies This edited collection is a welcome addition to debates and discussions about the cultures of the night and how popular music plays a continuing role in shaping them

L' Invention de l'éclairage public en France Sophie Reculin, 2024-09-23 This book offers an unprecedented history of the beginnings of street lighting in 18th century France

Cultures of Contagion Beatrice Delaurenti, Thomas Le Roux, 2021-10-19 Contagion as process metaphor and timely interpretive tool from antiquity to the twenty first century Cultures of Contagion recounts episodes in the history of contagions from ancient times to the twenty first century It considers contagion not only in the medical sense but also as a process a metaphor and an interpretive model as a term that describes not only the transmission of a virus but also the propagation of a phenomenon The authors describe a wide range of social cultural political and anthropological instances through the prism of contagion from anti Semitism to migration from the nuclear contamination of the planet to the violence of Mao s Red Guard The book proceeds glossary style with a series of short texts arranged alphabetically beginning with an entry on aluminum and environmental contagion and ending with a discussion of writing and textual resemblance caused by influence imitation borrowing and plagiarism The authors leading scholars associated with the Center for Historical Research

CRH Centre de recherches historiques Paris consider such topics as the connection between contagion and suggestion waltzmania in post Terror Paris the effect of reading on sensitive imaginations and the contagiousness of yawning They take two distinct approaches either examining contagion and what it signified contemporaneously or deploying contagion as an interpretive tool Both perspectives illuminate unexpected connections unnoticed configurations and invisible interactions
