Dyscalculia Pocketbook Judy Hornigold, 2015-10-13 Dyscalculia is a specific learning difficulty that affects a person's mathematical ability. It is estimated that around 6% of the population have dyscalculia so in a typical classroom there is likely to be at least one dyscalculic learner. Research is ongoing but we know that dyscalculia is a much deeper rooted problem than just being bad at maths. This Pocketbook looks at the difficulties faced by pupils with dyscalculia and explores the support strategies that work. The author begins by summarising and explaining what we currently know about dyscalculia. Key indicators are described along with various ways of screening and assessing to identify students with this SpLD. There's a helpful chapter on maths anxiety and a central practical section on teaching strategies that will help learners to work around the obstacles dyscalculia presents. Details of the three components of a mathematical idea and the six levels of learning: intuitive, concrete, pictorial, abstract, application and communication provide good underpinning structure. Games that help develop number sense and the ten most effective classroom approaches are also covered. A final resource section and maths glossary complete the picture. As with all books in the Teachers Pocketbooks series this is a practical how to guide throughout which cartoons, diagrams and visual prompts support the text.

All About Dyscalculia: A Practical Guide for Primary Teachers Judy Hornigold, 2023-07-18 All About Dyscalculia is an accessible and informative guide for primary school teachers designed to increase their knowledge and understanding of dyscalculia and provide practical strategies and advice to build the self-esteem and motivation of learners in their care. The book explores the indicators of dyscalculia before detailing a range of teaching strategies that will support dyscalculic children and help them to develop their mathematical understanding and resilience. Throughout the book there is an emphasis on creating an empathetic learning ethos in the classroom and school that will minimise maths anxiety and lead to a more positive outcome for all learners. All About Dyscalculia includes a comprehensive introduction to dyscalculia and steps to help teachers identify children with dyscalculia in their classrooms. Practical strategies for building specific maths abilities as well as broader problem-solving skills. Advice for teachers and parents on how to reduce maths anxiety and support the development of maths proficiency in learners. Easy to dip in and out of chapters with worked examples make this book accessible to all teachers and parents. With suggestions for immediate impact as well as ideas for more detailed interventions, this practical book will be essential reading for all mainstream primary teachers and SENCOs as well as a helpful guide to supporting children with dyscalculia at home.

Dyslexia, Dyscalculia and Mathematics Anne Henderson, 2013-05-02 Dyslexia, Dyscalculia and Mathematics will be an essential resource for teachers, classroom assistants and SENCOs who help dyslexic and dyscalculic children with their understanding of mathematics. Written in an accessible style with helpful illustrations, this practical book reveals helpful ways in which to tackle both simple and complex concepts with students of all ages. This second edition has been updated to include references to using technology that will help children with dyslexia and dyscalculia reinforce their mathematical skills and also contains a number of photocopiable resources that can be used in the classroom Written by Anne Henderson who is experienced in teaching language and mathematics to pupils with dyslexia and dyscalculia this book outlines current thinking in the field and shows how the research methods that have been proven as successful can be used with whole classes of children This book encourages flexible methods and gives teachers the confidence to discuss alternative solutions with their pupils and help them achieve success It is an ideal handbook for parent teacher programmes and is also suitable for in service training

Through Play for Children with PMLD and Complex Needs Ange Anderson, 2022-01-31 This book examines the development of play skills and schemas to support children with learning differences and physical disabilities in learning to play. It highlights the need for appropriate playground equipment in all school settings that educate children with physical disabilities and sensory needs to ensure equal opportunities for outdoor play. Several play approaches for meeting sensory needs are discussed including Lego therapy, Art therapy, Sand play and Soft play. Digital play for students with physical disabilities is an important chapter in the book. Role play and the ways in which virtual reality and psychodrama support anxieties that some students have is another important chapter. There is also a chapter devoted to parents on how they can support their child at home and how the school can support them. At the end of the book there is a plethora of resources that readers can copy or adapt to suit their setting. The book provides support for those managing outdoor play for these children at peak times of the day. It shows how play based learning can work in a classroom setting, the importance of sensory profiles and sensory play and how play therapy can aid neuroplasticity.

Planning in the Moment with Two and Three Year Olds Anna Ephgrave, 2020-06-08 Children are most engaged and therefore learn best when they are following their own interests. In this book Anna Ephgrave shows how her acclaimed planning in the moment approach can be used with two and three year olds with dramatic results for both children and staff. It reveals the impact that free flowing child initiated play has on very young children's wellbeing, making them feel safe, secure and consequently helping them to be fully engaged in their learning. The first part of the book clearly explains the principles of child initiated play and demonstrates how practitioners can create the best possible environment for very young children, also looking at the resources and practices that need to be in place for them to flourish. There is detailed guidance on the role of the practitioner including how adults should observe children's play before deciding how or if to interact in that moment to ensure that each interaction moves learning forward and supports the child's unique development. The second part of the book tracks some of the events from each month in the toddler room of an outstanding preschool following a cohort of children through a year to show how the setting moved from topic based adult led activities to a fully child led way of working. Key features include Over 350 full colour photos to illustrate practice. Specific guidance on using the in the
