War Stories Frances M. Clarke, 2020-03-04 This layered nuanced and focused study of Civil War era writings reveals a popular sense of patriotism and hope in the midst of loss Journal of American History The American Civil War is often seen as the first modern war not least because of the immense suffering it inflicted Yet unlike later conflicts it did not produce an outpouring of disillusionment or cynicism in public or private discourse In fact most people portrayed the war in highly sentimental and patriotic terms While scholars typically dismiss this everyday writing as simplistic or na ve Frances M Clarke argues that we need to reconsider the letters diaries songs and journalism penned by Union soldiers and their caregivers to fully understand the war s impact and meaning In War Stories Clarke revisits the most common stories that average Northerners told in hopes of redeeming their suffering and hardship stories that enabled people to express their beliefs about religion community and personal character From tales of Union soldiers who died heroically to stories of tireless volunteers who exemplified the Republic s virtues War Stories sheds new light on this transitional moment in the history of war emotional culture and American civic life

How to Revise a True War Story John K. Young,2017-01-15 You can tell a true war story if you just keep on telling it Tim O Brien writes in The Things They Carried Widely regarded as the most important novelist to come out of the American war in Viet Nam O Brien has kept on telling true war stories not only in narratives that cycle through multiple fictional and non fictional versions of the war s defining experiences but also by rewriting those stories again and again Key moments of revision extend from early drafts to the initial appearance of selected chapters in magazines across typescripts and page proofs for first editions and through continuing post publication variants in reprints How to Revise a True War Story is the first book length study of O Brien s archival papers at the University of Texas s Harry Ransom Center Drawing on extensive study of drafts and other prepublication materials as well as the multiple published versions of O Brien s works John K Young tells the untold stories behind the production of such key texts as Going After Cacciato The Things They Carried and In the Lake of the Woods By reading not just the texts that have been published but also the versions they could have been Young demonstrates the important choices O Brien and his editors have made about how to represent the traumas of the war in Viet Nam The result is a series of texts that refuse to settle into a finished or stable form just as the stories they present insist on being told and retold in new and changing ways In their lack of textual stability these variants across different versions enact for O Brien s readers the kinds of narrative volatility that is key to the American literature emerging from the war in Viet Nam Perhaps in this case you can tell a true war story if you just keep on revising it

Arms and the Woman Helen M. Cooper,Adrienne Auslander Munich,Susan Merrill Squier,2000-11-15 Although the themes of women s complicity in and resistance to war have been part of literature from early times they have not been fully integrated into conventional conceptions of the war narrative Combining feminist literary criticism with the emerging field of feminist war theory this collection explores the role of gender as an organizing principle in the war system and reveals how literature perpetuates the ancient myth of arms and the man The volume shows how the gendered conception of war has both shaped literary texts and formed the literary canon It identifies and interrogates the conventional war text with its culturally determined split between warlike men and peaceful women and it confirms that women's role in relation to war is much more complex and complicitous than such essentializing suggests The contributors examine a wide range of familiar texts from fresh perspectives and bring new texts to light Collectively these essays range in time from the Trojan War to the nuclear age The contributors are June Jordan Lorraine Helms Patricia Francis Cholakian Jane E Schultz Margaret R Higonnet James Longenbach Laura Stempel Mumford Sharon O'Brien Jane Marcus Sara Friedrichsmeyer Susan Schweik Carol J Adams Esther Fuchs Barbara Freeman Gillian Brown Helen M Cooper Adrienne Auslander Munich and Susan Merrill Squier
