Transforming Transformation in Research and Teaching at South African Universities Rob Pattman, Ronelle Carolissen, 2018-12-21 What is transformation in contemporary South African higher education How can it be facilitated through research and pedagogic practices These questions are addressed in this edited collection by established academics and emerging research students from nine South African universities The chapters give us access to students' worlds how they construct experience and navigate their complex spheres on and off campus By engaging with students as knowledge producers we transform popular ways of thinking about race gender class sexuality disability and age as singular and natural markers of difference and diversity Rather than taking diversity as fixed and rooted in nature we explore how diversity is imagined and lived in particular contexts on and off campus

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio-political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top-down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students' interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co-opted students into their ranks to create co-responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt

Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker, Monica McLean, 2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen s capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capabilitarian scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capabilitarian scholars practitioners and policy makers

Rebels and Rage Adam Habib, 2019-03-01

Adam Habib the most prominent and outspoken university official through the recent student protests takes a characteristically frank view of the past three years on South Africa s campuses in this new book Habib charts the progress of the student protests that erupted on Wits University campus in late 2015 and raged for the better part of three years drawing on his own intimate involvement and negotiation with the students and also records university management and government responses to the events He critically examines the student movement and individual student leaders who emerged under the banners feesmustfall and Rhodesmustfall and debates how to achieve truly progressive social change in South Africa on our campuses and off This book is both an attempt at a historical account and a thoughtful reflection on the issues the protests kicked up from the perspective not only of a high ranking member of university management but also Habib as political scientist with a background as an activist during the struggle against apartheid Habib moves between reflecting on the events of the last three years on university campuses and reimagining the future of South African higher education Adam Habib the most prominent and outspoken university official through the recent student protests takes a characteristically frank view of the past three years on South Africa s campuses in this new book Habib charts the progress

Africa Pathways to Higher Education Reform responds to the pressing need to comprehensively review the post apartheid experience and assess where South Africa s higher education stands across the continent and globally particularly within the country s efforts to overcome decades of socio economic imbalances It addresses the question of whether South Africa s transformation strategy from apartheid to democracy was simply a symbolic new flag raising and new anthem singing exercise reflecting a transition akin to those limited decolonization projects elsewhere in the world or whether something more fundamental was possible and was achieved with political and policy implications for other countries in Africa and globally This volume s ultimate purpose is to provide a basis for imagining new futures in which South Africa higher education in the context of Africa and the global world takes centre stage

Juta's Statutes of South Africa South Africa,2004 Higher Education ,2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world s economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Perils and Promises The State of Online Education Goals and Challenges of Online Learning and Innovations in the Age of COVID It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic

Ralarala, Salochana Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo, 2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulacy informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of the Western Cape Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society Utilisation of South African Research on Higher Education Jan Botha , Gabriele Vilyte, 2021-10-26 The relationship between research on the one hand and policy practice on the other hand is complicated and collaboration between scholars in research on higher education RHE and institutional research IR practitioners is often lacking This book marks a collaborative effort of a diverse range of South African RHE and IR scholars and asks the overarching questions What do we know about the utilisation of South African research on higher education SARHE and its subset of research known as Institutional Research How and by whom is this research used The book begins by looking at the historical underpinnings of SARHE and delineating the shape and size of this body of research This is followed by a series of case studies on South African Higher Education institutions and governmental bodies investigating how when and by whom are research on higher education and institutional research used in the decision making of these organisations This book is the first of its kind in South Africa and sets out to lay the groundwork for further research into the use uptake and utilisation of RHE and IR in this country Redefining Education and Development Kaitano Dube,2024-10-18 The book aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs particularly Goal 4 which focuses on quality education It explores the evolving role of education as a critical driver for achieving all 17 SDGs by providing a platform for discussing innovative educational models and theories that foster sustainable development The book takes an interdisciplinary approach merging educational theory developmental practice and human psychology to address complex global challenges hindering sustainable development The book includes case studies and empirical research such as exploring student entrepreneurship in the agricultural sector and the factors bridging the gap between entrepreneurial intention and venture creation These examples provide readers with practical applications of theoretical concepts and demonstrate the real world impact of educational innovations which is at the core of education delivery for all and how education touches on other areas of the SDGs The book offers valuable insights for policymakers educators and development practitioners by presenting research and theory based analyses It suggests ways to improve the academic environment to foster entrepreneurship and innovation which are key to economic development and job creation especially in regions with high youth unemployment rates The content suggests educational reforms that are responsive to the changing societal and economic landscapes The book s blend of theory and practice targets a broad audience including academic scholars students development agencies non governmental organisations and policymakers It seeks to engage these diverse readers in a conversation about the future of education and its role in achieving sustainable development In summary the book seeks to provide a comprehensive exploration of the nexus between education development and human needs in the context of the SDGs offering innovative perspectives and practical solutions to equip readers to contribute to sustainable global development National Youth Development Agency Annual Report South Africa.
