Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok

Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature sociology media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries

What Readers Do Beth Driscoll, 2024-02-21 Shining a spotlight on everyday readers of the 21st century Beth Driscoll explores how contemporary readers of Anglophone fiction interact with the book industry digital environments and each other We live in an era when book clubs bibliomemoirs Bookstagram and BookTok are as valuable to some readers as solitary reading moments The product of nearly two decades of qualitative research into readers and reading culture What Readers Do examines reading through three dimensions aesthetic conduct moral conduct and self care to show how readers intertwine private and social behaviors and both reinforce and oppose the structures of capitalism Analyzing reading as a post digital practice that is a synthesis of both print and digital modes and on and offline behaviors Driscoll presents a methodology for studying readers that connects book history literary studies sociology and actor network theory Arguing for the vitality agency and creativity of readers this book sheds light on how we read now and on how much more readers do than just read Digital

Textualities and Spaces in ELT Theresa Summer, Ralf Gießler, 2025-03-31 The digital world opens up a vast number of spaces such as immersive virtual reality digital book corners and discourses marked by hashtags In this volume we argue that digital spaces and textualities should play a more central role in English language teaching and learning ELT emphasising their multimodal and interactive nature as a means of engaging with different layers of meaning in the target language Digital spaces function as contact zones where readers and writers communicate negotiate experiences and shape collective identities Within these spaces digital textualities create opportunities for competence development across various language related domains fostering a critical engagement with texts Bringing together theoretical insights conceptual developments and case studies this volume explores the potential of digital spaces and textualities for ELT while addressing their practical implications Reference and Information Services Kay Ann Cassell, Uma Hiremath, 2023-01-17 From the ongoing flood of
