Middle Nowhere Coetzee South Africa:

In the Middle of Nowhere Jonathan Crewe, 2015-12-01 Relying on the author's personal recollections as well as on J M Coetzee's autobiographical and fictional works this book deals with Coetzee's formation as a writer of international prominence whose life and writing career began in South Africa Drawing on Coetzee's South African writings from Dusklands through Disgrace the book considers Coetzee's initial positioning in provincial South African political and literary culture as well as his drastic reframing of South African letters and his breakout into a global career culminating in the award of the Nobel Prize in 2003 The book considers Coetzee almost exclusively in relation to the South Africa from which he emigrated in 1999 but also emphasizes his momentous revision and undoing of the marginalized genre of South African Literature in the service of global authorship Written in the conviction that Coetzee's South African works remain his most impassioned and momentous ones this book seeks to come to terms with their conditions of possibility and distinctive achievement

Approaches to Teaching Coetzee's

Disgrace and Other Works Laura Wright, Jane Poyner, Elleke Boehmer, 2014-01-01 The novels of the South African writer J M Coetzee won him global recognition and the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2003 His work offers substantial pedagogical richness and challenges Coetzee treats such themes as race aging gender animal rights power violence colonial history and accountability the silent or silenced other sympathy and forgiveness in an allusive and detached prose that avoids obvious answers or easy ethical reassurance Part 1 of this volume Materials identifies secondary materials including multimedia and Internet resources that will help instructors guide their students through the contextual and formal complexities of Coetzee's fiction In part 2 Approaches essays discuss how to teach works that are sometimes suspicious of teachers and teaching The essays aim to help instructors negotiate Coetzee's ironies and allegories in his treatment of human relationships in a changing South Africa and of the shifting connections between human beings and the biosphere

J. M. Coetzee Dominic Head, 1997 The importance of J M Coetzee in the development of twentieth century fiction is widely recognised His work addresses some of the key issues of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries the relationship between postmodernism and postcolonialism the role of history in the novel and the question of how the author can combine an ethical and political consciousness with a commitment to the novel as a work of fiction In this study written in 1998 Dominic Head assesses Coetzee's position as a white South African writer engaged with the legacy of colonialism Through close readings of all the novels Head shows how Coetzee inhabits a transitional site between Europe and Africa and it is from this position that his more general concerns emerge Coetzee's engagement with the problems facing the postcolonial writer Head argues is always enriched by his awareness of a wider literary tradition

Literary Activism Amit Chaudhuri, 2018-02-15 Literary Activism revisits and interrogates and looks to renew the force of the literary It's a movement that emerges from a radically altered landscape for both publishing and academia where what Amit Chaudhuri calls market activism has effected changes on language on the measuring of value on the concept of influence in ways we struggle to recognise Encompassing the perspectives of the writer critic translator academic and publisher the essays in this volume follow no single line of enquiry Rather they offer the beginnings of an analysis of the literary world at a certain moment of globalisation while also questioning whether a literary world exists and if it does where its boundaries lie The collection moves in many directions from Arun Kolatkar and his near heroic refusal of both marketplace and reputation to Derek Attridge who argues for a form of affirmative criticism which positions the critic as a lover of the text while from Amsterdam Dubravka Ugrešić reflects on life in a literary out of nation zone adrift in a territory where intellectual protest has been stripped of ideological impetus and subsumed by the voraciousness of the market Taken together these essays initiate a series of conversations about who reads what and why about the practice of writing and criticism at this particular contemporary moment and about the activities and institutions that shape an understanding of what literature is and what it can do

Ecosustainable Narratives and Partnership Relationships in World Literatures in English Antonella Riem Natale, Tony Hughes-d'Aeth, 2022-04-27 The book challenges the myth of the neutrality and detachment of the scholar Its strength lies in its dynamic engaging and passionate participation in the meeting of texts and words of different genres geographical areas and cultures in the pluralistic diversity of the themes explored in its fundamental and creative relations with ecosophy ethnophilology ecofeminism system theory and ecolinguistics It brings together renowned international scholars to focus on postcolonial ecocritical mythical and archetypal studies of literature education and its partnership mediation applied linguistics and plurilingual education

Post-imperial Literature Vladimir Biti, 2021-11-08 This book proposes a new departure point for the investigation of transnational literary alliances the traumatic constellation of translatio imperii which followed the dissolution of the East Central European empires in the 1920s and the crumbling of the West European colonial empires in the 1950s To prevent their breakdown the former transitioned from a sovereign to a disciplinary mode of administration of their peripheries the latter from the merciless assimilation of their colonial constituencies to their affirmative regeneration This book treats Franz Kafka as the writer of the first transition prefiguring J M Coetzee as the writer of the second In a series of close readings it investigates the particular ways in which the restructuring of power relations between the agencies in their fictions is a response to the delineated post imperial reconfiguration of the new countries governmental techniques By displacing their narrative authority beyond the reach of their readers they laid bare the sudden withdrawal of transcendental guarantees from the world of human commonality This entailed an unstable and elusive configuration of their fictional worlds as a key feature of post imperial literature
