Migrant Imaginaries Figures In Italian Migration Literature Italian Modernities:

Migrant Imaginaries Jennifer Burns, 2013 This book addresses a rich corpus of contemporary narratives by authors who have come to Italy as migrants. It traces the figurative commonalities that emerge across these diverse texts which together suggest the shape and substance of what might be termed migrant imaginaries. Examining five central figures and concepts: identity, memory, home, place and space, and literature across a range of novels and stories by writers of African and Middle Eastern origin, the study elucidates the affective and expressive processes that inflect migrant story telling. Drawing on the work of cultural theorists such as Sara Ahmed and Michel de Certeau, as well as on recent work in postcolonial literary studies, memory studies, human geography and feminist theory, the book probes the varied works of Shirin Ramzanali, Fazel Amara, Lakhous, Mohsen Melliti, Younis Tawfik and many others. Each chapter posits alternative interpretations of the ways in which the interior experience of encounters across territories, cultures and languages is figured in this literature. In doing so, the book moves towards a wider apprehension of recent Italian migration narratives as suggestions of what a new notion of contemporary Italian literature might look like, figured at once within and beyond the boundaries of a national literature, a national language and a national cultural imaginary.

The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arab country as well as Arab immigrant writing in many languages around the world.

Il pensiero letterario come fondamento di una testa ben fatta Marina Geat, 2017-02-01 La pubblicazione degli Atti del convegno internazionale Il pensiero letterario come fondamento di una testa ben fatta si propone di dare ampia disseminazione a riflessioni di studiosi che a partire da approcci disciplinari diversi si interrogano tutti circa l'importanza del testo letterario quale fattore strutturante di un modo complesso e ricco di guardare il mondo, di comprendere meglio se stessi e gli altri, di concepire la rete di relazioni nel tempo e nello spazio che compone il nostro ambiente di vita fisico e mentale, di elaborare nuove prospettive di visione o forme di accesso alla realtà e al linguaggio più intime e dirette, come fa ad esempio la poesia. Sul solco del concetto di testa ben fatta da Montaigne a Edgar Morin, la letteratura appare come una fondamentale modalità di connessione e di comprensione dei molteplici aspetti che realizzano la nostra umanità per noi che siamo innanzi tutto degli esseri di parola e di testi. Le Scienze dell'educazione traggono certamente vantaggio da questa consapevolezza anche e soprattutto nel mondo attuale.

Transnational Lampedusa Jacopo Colombini, 2023-12-07 This book examines how Lampedusa, Italy's southernmost island, has become a transnational symbol representing migration to Europe from the Global South. It analyses how three very different associations have used the name Lampedusa as a means of restoring a sense of subjectivity or agency to migrants themselves. Jacopo Colombini argues that the work of the Archivio delle Memorie Migranti Rome, the self-organised refugee group Lampedusa in Hamburg, and the Lampedusa-based Collettivo Askavusa offers an alternative to the stereotypical, often racially connoted public discussion of migrant presence in Italy and Europe He also demonstrates however that the marginalisation of migrant and refugee voices in the public discourse is also partially and unavoidably reproduced in the cultural projects that wish to restore their agency

Empire's Mobius Strip Stephanie Malia Hom, 2019-09-15 Its brilliant prose makes Empire's Mobius Strip easily accessible to anyone interested in today's migration crisis in the Mediterranean and elsewhere in the world American Historical Review Italy's current crisis of Mediterranean migration and detention has its roots in early twentieth century imperial ambitions Empire's Mobius Strip investigates how mobile populations were perceived to be major threats to Italian colonization and how the state's historical mechanisms of control have resurfaced with greater force in today's refugee crisis What is at stake in Empire's Mobius Strip is a deeper understanding of the forces driving those who move by choice and those who are moved Stephanie Malia Hom focuses on Libya considered Italy's most valuable colony both politically and economically Often perceived as the least of the great powers Italian imperialism has been framed as something of colonialism lite But Italian colonizers carried out genocide between 1929-33 targeting nomadic Bedouin and marching almost 100 000 of them across the desert incarcerating them in camps where more than half who entered died simply because the Italians considered their way of life suspect There are uncanny echoes with the situation of the Roma and migrants today Hom explores three sites in novella like essays where Italy's colonial past touches down in the present the island the camp and the village Empire's Mobius Strip brings into relief Italy's shifting constellations of mobility and empire giving them space to surface submerge stretch out across time and fold back on themselves like a Mobius strip It deftly shows that mobility forges lasting connections between colonial imperialism and neoliberal empire establishing Italy as a key site for the study of imperial formations in Europe and the Mediterranean

The New Demagogues Joshua M. Roose, 2020-11-29 Chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780429431197> Focused on the emergence of US President Donald Trump the United Kingdom's departure from the European Union and the recruitment of Islamic State foreign fighters from Western Muslim communities this book explores the ways in which the decay and corruption of key social institutions has created a vacuum of intellectual and moral guidance for working people and deprived them of hope and an upward social mobility long considered central to the social contract of Western liberal democracy Examining the exploitation of this vacuum of leadership and opportunity by new demagogues the author considers two important yet overlooked dimensions of this new populism the mobilization of both religion and masculinity By understanding religion as a dynamic social force that can be mobilized for purposes of social solidarity and by appreciating the sociological arguments that hyper masculinity is caused by social injury Roose considers how these key social factors have been particularly important in contributing to the emergence of the new demagogues and their followers Roose identifies the challenges that this poses for Western liberal democracy and argues that states must look beyond identity politics and exclusively rights based claims and instead consider classical conceptions of citizenship
