Middle East S. Irudaya Rajan,Prem Saxena,2019-10-10 This book provides new insights and research studies on how developing countries come to terms with the nationalisation policies of Gulf economies that provide employment for their nationals Focusing on regions and countries that have traditionally been overlooked it includes studies on labour migration from Egypt to the Middle East and from the Philippines to Lebanon migrant experiences and policy prospects in Saudi Arabia and Lebanon and Indian migration to the Gulf The book fills a critical gap in migration research by studying migration from various Indian states such as Tamil Nadu Telugu speaking states Telangana and Andhra Pradesh Rajasthan and Uttar Pradesh It also explores the unexpected phenomenon of demographic windows of economic opportunity not documented in demographic literature observed in a few Arab countries due to older migrant expatriates returning to their home country the impact of international out migration on intergenerational educational mobility among children in migrant sending households in Kerala and forced migration of Kerala Muslims to the Gulf

Human Security and Migration in Europe's Southern Borders Susana Ferreira, 2018-12-13 This book examines the management of migratory flows in the Mediterranean within an international security perspective The intense migratory flows registered during the year 2015 and the tragedies in the Mediterranean Sea have tested the mechanisms of the Union's immigration and asylum policies and its ability to respond to humanitarian crises Moreover these flows of varying intensities and geographies represent a threat to the internal security of the EU and its member states By using Spain and Italy as case studies the author theorizes that the EU given its inability to adopt and implement a common policy to effectively manage migratory flows on its Southern border uses a deterrence strategy based on minimum common denominators

Climate Change in the Middle East and North Africa William R. Thompson, Leila Zakhirova, 2021-07-04 Environmental factors in the Middle East and North Africa MENA have played a crucial role in the historical and social development of the region The book delves into a broad set of historical literature from the past 15 000 years that neglected to consider environmental factors to their full effect Beyond the broad historic analysis the chapters derive conclusions for today's debate on whether climate change leads to more social conflict and violence Introducing a theoretical framework focused on adaptive cycling this book probes and refines the role of climate in ancient and modern political economic systems in the MENA region It also underscores just how bad the 21st century environment may become thanks to global warming While the MENA region may not survive the latest onslaught of deteriorating climate there is also some interest in how a region that once led the world in introducing all sorts of innovations thousands of years ago has evolved into a contemporary setting characterized by traditional conservatism poverty and incessant strife Emphasizing regional dynamics the book's central question deals with the role of climate change in the rise and decline of the MENA region The book will be a key resource to students and readers interested in global warming including academics and policymakers

Transit Migration in Europe Irina Molodikova, Franck Düvell, Michael Collyer, 2025-10-01 Transit migration comprising mixed flows of refugees and labour is widely considered a concern and even security threat However the concept is as vague and blurred as it is politicised This volume offers evidence based comprehensive coverage of the entire belt of countries in the neighbourhood of the EU ranging from Russia to Morocco Transit migration is critically analyzed from the perspective of sending transit and receiving countries offering new insights into refugee and irregular migration flows transnational migration networks and overlapping migration systems

Migration, Security, and Citizenship in the Middle East P. Seeberg,Z. A Global Middle East Liat Kozma,Cyrus Schayegh,Avner Wishnitzer,2014-12-03 The start of the twentieth century ushered in a period of unprecedented change in the Middle East These transformations brought about by the emergence of the modern state system and an increasing interaction with a more globalized economy irrevocably altered the political and social structures of the Middle East even as the region itself left its mark on the processes of globalization themselves As a result of these changes there was an intensification in the movement of people commodities and ideas across the globe commercial activity urban space intellectual life leisure culture immigration patterns and education nothing was left untouched It shows how even as the Middle East was responding to increased economic interactions with the rest of the world by restructuring not only local economies but also cultural political and social institutions the region s engagement with these trends altered the nature of globalization itself This period has been seen as one in which the modern state system and its oftentimes artificial boundaries emerged in the Middle East But this book highlights how despite this it was also one of tremendous interconnection Approaching the first period of modern globalization by investigating the movement of people objects and ideas into around and out of the Middle East the authors demonstrate how the Middle East in this period was not simply subject or reactive to the West but rather an active participant in the transnational flows that transformed both the region and the world A Global Middle East offers an examination of a variety of intellectual and more material exchanges such as nascent feminist movements and Islamist ideologies as well as the movement of sex workers across the Mediterranean and Jewish migration into Palestine A Global Middle East emphasises this by examining the multi directional nature of movement across borders as well as this movement s intensity volume and speed By focusing on the theme of mobility as the defining feature of modern globalization in the Middle East it provides an essential examination of the formative years of the region

Global Climate Change, Population Displacement, and Public Health Lawrence A. Palinkas,2020-05-07 This timely text examines the causes and consequences of population displacement related to climate change in the recent past the present and the near future First and foremost this book includes an examination of patterns of population displacement that have occurred or are currently underway Second the book introduces a three tier framework for both understanding and responding to the public health impacts of climate related population displacement It illustrates the interrelations between impacts on the larger physical and social environment that precipitates and results from population displacement and the social and health impacts of climate related migration Third the book contains first hand accounts of climate related population displacement and its consequences in addition to reviews of demographic data and reviews of existing literature on the subject Topics explored among the chapters include Hurricane Katrina and New Orleans Hurricane Maria and Puerto Rico The California Wildfires Fleeing Drought The Great Migration to Europe Fleeing Flooding Asia and the Pacific Fleeing Coastal Erosion Kivalina and Isle de Jean Charles Although the book is largely written from the perspective of a researcher it reflects the perspectives of practitioners and policymakers on the need for developing policies programs and interventions to address the growing numbers of individuals families and communities that have been displaced as a result of short and long term environmental disasters Global Climate Change Population Displacement and Public Health is a vital resource for an international audience of researchers practitioners and policymakers representing a variety of disciplines including public health public policy social work urban development climate and environmental science engineering and medicine Globalising Migration History, 2014-03-27

Globalizing Migration History is a major step forward in comparative global migration history Looking at the period 1500 2000 it presents a new universal method to quantify and qualify cross cultural migrations which makes it possible to detect regional trends and explain differences in migration patterns across the globe in the last half millennium The contributions in this volume written by specialists on Russia China Japan India Indonesia and South East Asia show that such a method offers a fruitful starting point for rigorous comparisons Furthermore the volume is an explicit invitation to other economic cultural social and political historians to include migration more explicitly and systematically in their analyses and thus reach a deeper understanding of the impact of cross cultural migrations on social change Contributors are Sunil Amrith Ulbe Bosma Gijs Kessler Jelle van Lottum Jan Lucassen Leo Lucassen Mireille Mazard Adam McKeown Atsushi Ota Vijaya Ramaswamy Osamu Saito Jianfa Shen Ryuto Shimada Willard Sunderland and Yuki Umeno Raptor Migration in Israel and the Middle East Guy M. Kirwan, Reuven Yosef, 2000 African Indigenous Knowledges in a Postcolonial World Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, Ngozi Nwogwugwu, Gift Ntiwunka, 2020-11-29 This book argues that ancient and modern African indigenous knowledges remain key to Africa's role in global capital technological and knowledge development and to addressing her marginality and postcoloniality The contributors engage the unresolved problematics of the historical and contemporary linkages between African knowledges and the African academy and between African and global knowledges The book relies on historical and comparative political analysis to explore the global context for the application of indigenous knowledges for tackling postcolonial challenges of knowledge production conflict and migration and women's rights on the continent in transcontinental African contexts Asserting the enduring potency of African indigenous knowledges for the transformation of policy the African academy and the study of Africa in the global academy this book will be of interest to scholars of African Studies postcolonial studies and decolonisation and global affairs Understanding Global Migration James F.

Hollifield, Neil Foley, 2022-03-01 Understanding Global Migration offers scholars a groundbreaking account of emerging migration states around the globe especially in the Global South Leading scholars of migration have collaborated to provide a birds eye view of migration interdependence Understanding Global Migration proposes a new typology of migration states identifying multiple ideal types beyond the classical liberal type Much of the world s migration has been to countries in Asia Africa the Middle East and South America The authors assembled here account for diverse histories of colonialism development and identity in shaping migration policy This book provides a truly global look at the dilemmas of migration governance Will migration be destabilizing or will it lead to greater openness and human development The answer depends on the capacity of states to manage migration especially their willingness to respect the rights of the ever growing portion of the world s population that is on the move

Human Trafficking and Exploitation Belachew Gebrewold, Johanna Kostenzer, Andreas Th. Müller, 2017-09-22 Human trafficking is a serious human rights violation that leads to the gross exploitation of its victims who are coerced into forced labor and slavery across the globe As the current migration movement and refugee situation reaches crisis point in Europe the risk of human trafficking from the Mediterranean Sea through Italy into Central and Western Europe has become a critical emergency Focusing on human trafficking along this route into Europe this book discusses the systematic exploitation of victims and the subsequent violation of human rights within an international context providing an overview of the causes regulation and prevention of the issue Academic researchers practitioners and policy makers are brought together to provide both theoretical perspectives and practice based approaches for addressing the issue of human trafficking As well as scholarly contributions from experts in the field the book also includes experiences and strategies of policy makers and practitioners from governmental and non governmental organizations along with the real life scenarios and practice reports Human Trafficking and Exploitation should be considered essential reading for academics policy makers advocates and activists interested in preventing human trafficking and protecting human rights It will also be of interest to those with research interests within the broader themes of law politics and international relations and social and health policy

Politics of Armenian Migration to North America, 1885-1915 David Gutman, 2019-06-24 This book tells the story of Armenian migration to North America in the late Ottoman period and Istanbul s efforts to prevent it It shows how just as in the present migrants in the late 19th and early 20th centuries were forced to travel through clandestine smuggling networks frustrating the enforcement of the ban on migration Further migrants who attempted to return home from sojourns in North America risked debarment at the border and deportation while the return of migrants who had naturalized as US citizens generated friction between the United States and Ottoman governments The author sheds light on the relationship between the imperial state and its Armenian populations in the decades leading up to the Armenian genocide He also places the Ottoman Empire squarely in the middle of global debates on migration border control and restriction in this period adding to our understanding of the global historical origins of contemporary immigration politics and other issues of relevance today in the Middle East region such borders and frontiers migrants and refugees and ethno religious minorities
