Doing Digital Migration Studies Koen Leurs, Sandra Ponzanesi, 2025-10-01 Doing Digital Migration present a comprehensive entry point to the variety of theoretical debates methodological interventions political discussions and ethical debates around migrant forms of belonging as articulated through digital practices Digital technologies impact upon everyday migrant lives while vice versa migrants play a key role in technological developments be it when negotiating the communicative affordances of platforms and devices as consumers of particular commercial services such as sending remittances as platform gig workers or test cases for new advanced surveillance technologies With its international scope this anthology invites scholars to pluralize understandings of the migrant and the digital The anthology is organized in five different sections Creative Practices Digital Diasporas and Placemaking Affect and Belonging Visuality and digital media and Datafication Infrastructuring and Securitization These sections are dedicated to emerging key topics and debates in digital migration studies and sections are each introduced by international experts I The emphasis on reflective doing of digital migration studies So far scholarship in this interdisciplinary focus area has remained relatively silent on the topic of accountability and questions of decision making in the research process II The truly transdisciplinary and international scope of the volume distinguishes this volume from the disciplinary oriented special issues and monographs published in the field of media and communication anthropology migration studies and refugee studies Digital migration creates new challenges for cross disciplinary dialogues that require an integration of ethnography with digital methods and critical data studies in order to look at the formation of identity and experience representation community building and creating spaces of belongingness III The innovative emphasis on everyday lived experiences and practices sheds much needed light on the ways in which increasingly documented infrastructures of datafication and digitization are lived negotiated and contested For this purpose the volume pays particular attention to the everyday use of digital media for the support of transnational lives emotional bonds and cosmopolitan affiliations focusing also on the role technologies such as social media and smartphones play in shaping local urban and national diasporic formations This is because it becomes increasingly important to give everyday digital media usage a central role in investigations of transnational belonging digital intimacy diasporic community re production migrant subject formation long distance political participation urban social integration and local national self organization

Transnational Migrations in the Asia-Pacific Catherine Gomes, Brenda S. A. Yeoh, 2018-08-15 This edited collection interrogates the diversity of transnational migration experiences in the Asia Pacific through the lens of digital ethnography in order to explore the transformative effects digital media plays in these experiences While there has been work on the various ways in which internet communication technologies ICTs particularly mobile communication allows for various forms of connectivity between individuals and groups in this age of hyper transnational mobility there is a scarcity on the way digital media presents challenges creates agency and alters relationships within the broad umbrella of the transnational migration experience The authors in this collection who come from diverse disciplinary backgrounds across social cultural education and communication research present cutting edge cross and trans disciplinary analyses of transnational migration where digital media becomes a creative if not fundamental avenue for migrants to develop new strategies for dealing with their cross border mobilities

Language, Migration and Multilingualism in the Age of Digital Humanities Ignacio Andrés Soria, Sandra Issel-Dombert, Laura Morgenthaler García, 2023-08-21 Located at the intersection of humanities and applied informatics the fledgling discipline of Digital Humanities is bringing new impulses to the field of Romance linguistics Those are especially productive in the context of migration and heteroglossic practices which encounter constraining language ideologies in Western societies The aim of this volume is to critically reflect on both the usefulness and limitations of digitization in different areas and superdiverse contexts of the Spanish speaking world Through 11 case studies it illuminates the digital turn from different theoretical and methodological perspectives providing a better understanding of the complex interplay between language and digitization

Remote and Roaming Mari

Toivanen,2025-09-16 Remote and Roaming explores the practices meanings and politics of digital nomadism through extensive ethnographic fieldwork conducted across the globe Digital nomads represent a growing class of highly mobile professionals whose work is location independent and who combine continuous travel with remote work Based on rich empirical material the book examines digital nomads accounts of their mobile lifestyles and addresses key questions such as why do individuals choose this way of life What does their everyday routine entail And how do they navigate social relationships family and community life By situating digital nomadism within broader patterns of remote work this volume highlights the societal and global transformations currently unfolding in relation to employment mobility and digitalisation and their implications for both social and professional life As an early manifestation of growing international remote work mobilities digital nomadism reflects the evolving nature of work in late capitalist societies and the emergence of transnational lifestyle mobilities shaped by the COVID 19 pandemic
