the convergence of film with politics the question of gender and violence as well as the revisiting of the period immediately following independence Attention is given to fiction documentary films and recent short alternative video productions that are overlooked by more traditional channels The book stresses the need to pay attention to the significance of African film and Lusophone African film in particular within the developing field of world cinema Bringing together general overviews historical considerations detailed case studies and focused theoretical reflections this book is a significant volume for students and researchers in film studies especially African Lusophone cultural studies and world cinema      Migration on the Lusophone World Maria I.
