Robinson, Lanette D. Ruff, 2011-07-01 The 1920s saw one of the most striking revolutions in manners and morals to have marked North American society affecting almost every aspect of life from dress and drink to sex and salvation Protestant Christianity was being torn apart by a heated controversy between traditionalists and the modernists as they sought to determine how much their beliefs and practices should be altered by scientific study and more secular attitudes Out of the controversy arose the Fundamentalist movement which has become a powerful force in twentieth century America During this decade hundreds and perhaps thousands of young girl preachers some not even school age joined the conservative Christian cause proclaiming traditional values and condemning modern experiments with the new morality Some of the girls drew crowds into the thousands But the stage these girls gained went far beyond the revivalist platform The girl evangelist phenomenon was recognized in the wider society as well and the contrast to the flapper worked well for the press and the public Girl evangelists stood out as the counter type of the flapper who had come to define the modern girl The striking contrast these girls offered to the racy flapper and to modern culture generally made girl evangelists a convenient and effective tool for conservative and revivalist Christianity a tool which was used by their adherents in the clash of cultures that marked the 1920s symbiotic relationship develops between a self aware female computer and an American Indian man dying of old age This is a forced relationship dictated by mutual needs for survival in a world stripped of technology by aliens The main characters begin the fight of their lives but before they can fight the fierce aliens Levi and Amy must fight for control of who they will be jointly What begins as conflict of minds develops into tolerance then cooperation and finally love This love of total oneness creates a unity of incredible power and strength that provides the means to fight the aliens Female brains and male brawn unite to battle against incredible odds for the survival of the human race The conflict of minds action adventure and suspense are all interlaced into a compelling and fast paced adventure The characters are three dimensional with real emotions not always perfect but always interacting The story presented from differing viewpoints depict the two main characters as they convey some of the same events from both a male and female perspective As they interface the events are often seen from conflicting emotions and motivations sometimes cynical and often humorous It is the ultimate struggle of male versus female while combating monstrous aliens As expected this action story has a strong appeal to men while the romance aspect compliments the story expanding the appeal in women Additionally one of the main characters is Amy a particularly brilliant and forceful female who demands attention from both sexes Her male counterpart is very physical and masculine representing everything Amy is not Both characters and sexes are presented in a positive although conflicting way at times These characters and the story are strong and their saga continues in its sequel Target Earth
