Learning Richard Slimbach,2023-07-03 This is a visionary consciousness raising book that asks us to rethink the purposes and design of study away and study abroad experiences in the context of a broadened set of global threats including climate disruption soaring inequality ecosystem breakdown the dying off of distinct languages and cultural communities and the threat of a nuclear catastrophe As we ask students to truly comprehend this world from the privileged perspective of the global North Rich Slimbach asks us to consider two fundamental questions What and how should we learn And having learned for what should we use what we know A panoply of pedagogies and methods of inquiry from study away abroad and service based learning to diversity programming environmental education and community based research aim to develop students who both understand the challenges faced by global communities and act in ways that advance their social and environmental health What temperaments social habits and intellectual abilities will they need to help heal their corner of creation And what pedagogical perspectives principles and procedures can best support them in this creative challenge Rich Slimbach argues that transforming student consciousness and life choices requires a global learning curriculum that integrates multi disciplinary inquiry into the structural causes of problems that riddle the common good along with mechanisms that bid students to cross borders to pay attention and to listen to those unlike themselves At its heart this book proposes a truly transformative approach to community engaged global learning Engagement in the City Bryna Bobick,Leigh N. Hersey,2021-03-12 Engagement in the City How Arts and Culture Impact Development in Urban Areas provides readers with numerous examples of ways that the arts can contribute to community development Through the diverse backgrounds of its contributing authors representing artists art educators and public administration scholars the role of arts is explored as a contributing factor in strengthening communities The book shows that the arts have the potential to positively impact a wide variety of development interests including economic education health social capital and of cultural The book provides strategies and techniques for implementing successful arts based projects whether it be through public art initiatives service learning opportunities or the development or cultural districts Cross sectoral collaboration is a key in many of these projects making the book beneficial for artists and community leaders who seek ways to work together to improve their cities The Experience of Neoliberal Education Bonnie Urciuoli,2018-05-22 The college experience is increasingly positioned to demonstrate its value as a worthwhile return on investment Specific definable activities such as research experience first year experience and experiential learning are marketed as delivering precise skill sets in the form of an individual educational package Through ethnography based analysis the contributors to this volume explore how these commodified experiences have turned students into consumers and given them the illusion that they are in control of their investment They further reveal how the pressure to plan every move with a constant eye on a demonstrable return has supplanted traditional approaches to classroom education and profoundly altered the student experience Convergence of Contemporary Art, Visual Culture, and Global Civic Engagement Shin, Ryan, 2016-11-29 Art is a multi faceted part of human society and often is used for more than purely aesthetic purposes When used as a narrative on modern society art can actively engage citizens in cultural and pedagogical discussions Convergence of Contemporary Art Visual Culture and Global Civic Engagement is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly material on the relationship between popular media art and visual culture analyzing how this intersection promotes global pedagogy and learning Highlighting relevant perspectives from both international and community levels this book is ideally designed for professionals upper level students researchers and academics interested in the role of art in global learning
