Needs Assessment James W. Altschuld, David Devraj Kumar, 2010 In 1995 Witkin and Altschuld proposed a three phase process model of needs assessment Preassessment learning as much as possible from existing inexpensive sources Assessment collecting new information about the needs in consideration Postassessment prioritizing needs understanding their causes and translating priorities into action plans for organizations The model has been extensively re conceptualized and forms the basis for this book The content includes a user oriented approach to a comprehensive overview of the three phases and the 14 key steps necessary to implement them Numerous examples and practical illustrations are given throughout the text as guidance for needs assessors and those who do research on the topic An extensive glossary of needs related terms and an outline of a final report are also provided The book is the first one in the Needs Assessment KIT with connections to the other four

Expositions of Holy Scripture: St. John Chapters I to XIV Alexander Maclaren, 2019-12-03 In Expositions of Holy Scripture St John Chapters I to XIV Alexander Maclaren offers a profound and engaging commentary on the initial chapters of the Gospel of John His literary style seamlessly blends eloquent prose and scholarly rigor effectively illuminating the theological depth within the text Maclaren meticulously unpacks the layers of meaning in John's narrative exploring themes such as divinity, faith, and the nature of Christ's ministry. His exegesis situates the Gospel within its historical context while also making it accessible to contemporary readers reflecting on its enduring relevance and spiritual insights.

Alexander Maclaren (1826-1910) was a prominent Scottish preacher and biblical scholar known for his ability to convey complex theological concepts with clarity and passion. His extensive background in both the original languages of the Bible and pastoral practice deeply informed his writing. Maclaren's commitment to illuminating scripture for his congregation laid the groundwork for this work as he sought to bridge the gap between ancient texts and modern faith challenges, enriching the spiritual lives of his readers.

This book is essential for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the Gospel. John Maclaren's insightful interpretations and engaging style invite readers to contemplate profound spiritual truths, making it not only a scholarly resource but also a source of inspiration for personal reflection and growth. Unthink Chris Paley, 2014-08-14 Your life is dominated by your unconscious mind by thoughts you're unaware of and movements you don't realise you are making. Words, colours, mannerisms, and other cues you don't realise are affecting you change what you think. The confidence you have in your ability to reason and to consciously choose what to do is caused by a series of illusions that scientists are only just beginning to understand. The discovery of these illusions will change the way we see ourselves more than the discoveries of Darwin and Copernicus. Unthink explores the unconscious decisions we make and covers a variety of topics ranging from how we choose politicians and romantic partners to more abstract subjects such as whether we can consciously decide to move our fingers. The counter-intuitive observations that Chris makes in the book include: If you want someone to fancy you, wear red and meet them somewhere frightening. When waitresses repeat customers' orders back to them instead of just saying yes, they receive bigger tips. To reduce your shopping bill, start at the beer and snacks end of the store and work backwards. If you sit someone in an upright chair when you give them good news, they will be prouder of their achievements. Having a picture of your family on your desk might make you work harder, but you'll be rattier when you get home. Chris Paley shows us how we can understand ourselves and others better by having a greater understanding of the way that the unconscious mind has an impact on the way we live our lives.
