Negotiating Workload Hours Emma Howard:

Ranching on the Point Reyes Peninsula Douglas Livingston, 1993 Game Plan Bob Buford, 2009-09-01 Thousands of readers have found an exciting new vision for the second half of life in the bestselling book Halftime Bob Buford showed us that we aren't experiencing a midlife crisis that's winding us down to our retirement years but a break in the game that can prepare us for the most exciting half of life In Game Plan Buford gives you a practical way to move from success to significance and create an individual strategy that can get you where you want to be five ten twenty thirty or more years from now If you sense it's time for a positive change in your life Game Plan gives you the tools to uncover your best self aim for your highest dreams and make your career and personal life more meaningful and fulfilling than ever Homosexuality in the Work of Gore Vidal Jörg Behrendt, 2002 Since his first novel with a homosexual topic The City and the Pillar appeared in 1948 Gore Vidal has been seen as an enfant terrible of American letters Through his ongoing writing career he has examined homo sexuality in the context of cultural religious and socio political developments so that it is fascinating to revisit his critical sometimes cynical and always wittily presented ideas which were formed at a time when Gay Liberation Gay Literature and Gay Identity were still unheard of and to discover the meaning these ideas still hold for us today The International Directory of Little Magazines and Small Presses Len Fulton, 2006-09 The biggest revision in ten years of the Bible of the business Wall Street Journal This essential reference for writers librarians students of modern literature and readers worldwide was started in the 1960s during the initial phase of the small press revolution It is safe to say that in its forty first edition the directory is a publishing legend It includes information on over 5 000 presses and journals from around the world listing addresses manuscript requirements payment rates and recent publications Subject and regional indexes are also provided Reimagining Probation Practice Lol Burke, Nicola Carr, Emma Cluley, Steve Collett, Fergus McNeill, 2022-10-17 This book provides a comprehensive and positive reimagining of probation practice in England and Wales across all the key settings in which work with people subject to supervision takes place Bringing together chapters co authored by academics and practitioners it offers an overall conceptualisation of the rehabilitative endeavour within the realities of a probation service recently unified after the acknowledged failure of the Transforming Rehabilitation reforms Reimagining Probation Practice covers the main themes and job functions of probation practice from court work to individual and group interventions to resettlement and public protection to partnerships to education and training Each chapter includes a brief critical history of the area of practice the current policy context the applicability of different forms of rehabilitation personal legal judicial social and moral to this area of practice an overview of current good practice and areas in need of development The book argues that the principles of parsimony proportionality and productiveness should be applied to the criminal justice system in its work to rehabilitate individuals This book is essential reading for practitioners and all those engaged in probation training as well as policy makers leaders managers and those interested in social and criminal justice Angolite ,1992 After Work Shiori Shakuto,2025-01-07 An ethnography of silver backpackers that offers a feminist perspective on what makes a good retirement in contemporary societies The moniker silver backpackers refers to Japanese couples who in their mid fifties to seventies move to Malaysia to enjoy their retirement Recent scholarship on Japan has revealed how the gendered division of labor impacts the lives of middle class workers and their families But how do cultural values live on or change when these professionals retire from work move on from identities built through salaried careers and embark on a new phase of life After Work takes up this question to focus on what comes after work and in the process expands our understanding of aging gender migration and the future of work Based on fifteen months of fieldwork in Kuala Lumpur and employing a transnational feminist framework After Work investigates moments of difference in the experiences of older women and men to examine patriarchal conversations that dominate ideas about contemporary retirement Shiori Shakuto argues that anxiety around self and belonging in retirement are instigated by the capitalist labor regime and the discourse of successful aging both of which devalue nonremunerated activities conducted at home What is needed instead she contends is a re valuation of key domestic activities from caring for children to pursuing individual hobbies so that life can be appreciated in its entirety Shakuto also takes into account the fact that this transnational retirement is set in Malaysia a nation that Japan occupied during World War II and thereafter subject to decades of economic investment and resource exploitation by Japanese corporations Highlighting how historical cultural and racialized complexities entangle with intimate relations in increasingly connected Asian countries while simultaneously acknowledging how the boundaries between work and life blur ever more in contemporary society After Work complicates our perceptions of aging and a good retirement as well as our understandings of gender migration and the future of work as we know it and adaptations of Shakespeare in regions that were once under European colonial rule Arguing for the Post Colonies as a distinct category within Global Shakespeares this volume explores the reality of 21st century Shakespeares in geographies of post colonial and postcolonial inheritance such as continental Africa Australasia the Arab world the Indian subcontinent East Asia and the Americas As former colonies in Asia and Africa cross fifty and even seventy years of political independence contributors re examine the presence of Shakespeare in marginalised or politically disenfranchised communities interrogating how Shakespeare intersects with the internal and global power dynamics of post independence nations The essays cover a rich array of genres ranging from theatrical performances translations and cinematic adaptations to classroom strategies They turn to texts that have often gone ignored and give voice to Shakespeare appropriations by subaltern groups Essays address questions of race gender nationality indigeneity caste and class shedding new light on the diverse range of contemporary Shakespeare engagements across the global Post Colonies

De Gruyter Handbook of Digital Cultures Grant Bollmer, Katherine Guinness, Yiğit Soncul, 2025-09-22 As Digital Cultures becomes the dominant term used by many across a variety of intellectual fields to describe the social aesthetic and political impact of digital media it is necessary to provide a reference volume that specifies and defines the bounds of scholarly debates and curricular outlines for an otherwise amorphous interdisciplinary space This handbook provides a comprehensive reference for the varied methodologies historical frames and theoretical perspectives essential for the study of Digital Cultures today In outlining these foundations it serves as a practical guide for educators and students into the broad range of perspectives grouped together for the critical historical and social scientific study of digital media It also looks into the future and outlines an agenda for future research by examining not only the origins of the concept of Digital Culture but emerging topics and themes still in development such as the relation between digital technology and climate change artificial intelligence and knowledge sensation and aesthetics and the rise of new infrastructures reinventing not only the built environment but the boundaries of nations and sovereignty

History of the City of Buffalo and Erie County Henry Perry Smith, 1884 Implicating the System Elspeth Kaiser-Derrick, 2019-03-15 Indigenous women continue to be overrepresented in Canadian prisons research demonstrates how their overincarceration and often extensive experiences of victimization are interconnected with and through ongoing processes of colonization Implicating the System Judicial Discourses in the Sentencing of Indigenous Women explores how judges navigate these issues in sentencing by examining related discourses in selected judgments from a review of 175 decisions The feminist theory of the victimization criminalization continuum informs Elspeth Kaiser Derrick's work She examines its overlap with the Gladue analysis foregrounding decisions that effectively integrate gendered understandings of Indigenous women's victimization histories and problematizing those with less contextualized reasoning Ultimately she contends that judicial use of the victimization criminalization continuum deepens the Gladue analysis and augments its capacity to further its objectives of alternatives to incarceration Kaiser Derrick discusses how judicial discourses about victimization intersect with those about rehabilitation and treatment and suggests associated problems particularly where prison is characterized as a place of healing Finally she shows how recent incursions into judicial discretion through legislative changes to the conditional sentencing regime that restrict the availability of alternatives to incarceration are particularly concerning for Indigenous women in the system The Youth's Companion Nathaniel Willis, Daniel Sharp Ford, 1898 Includes music Litigating Women Teresa Phipps, Deborah Youngs, 2021-12-30 This edited collection written by both established and new researchers reveals the experiences of litigating women across premodern Europe and captures the current state of research in this ever growing field Individually the chapters offer an insight into the motivations and strategies of women who engaged in legal action in a wide range of courts from local rural and urban courts to ecclesiastical courts and the highest jurisdictions of crown and parliament Collectively the focus on individual women litigants rather than how women were defined by legal systems highlights continuities in their experiences of justice while also demonstrating the unique and intersecting factors that influenced each woman s negotiation of the courts Spanning a broad chronology and a wide range of contexts these studies also offer a valuable insight into the practices and priorities of the many courts under discussion that goes beyond our focus on women litigants Drawing on archival research from England Scotland Ireland France the Low Countries Central and Eastern Europe and Scandinavia Litigating Women is the perfect resource for students and scholars interested in legal studies and gender in medieval and early modern Europe The Rochester Directory ,1910 Princeton Alumni Weekly ,1958 Iron Trade Review ,1899 Proceedings of the Common Council, for the City of Rochester, for ... Rochester (N.Y.). Common Council, 1895 Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1986-02 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world
